Children & Young People Now

5 March 2010

Learning & Conference Centre, Nottingham

Put Young People At The Heart Of Your Service: Hear Practical Success Stories About Young People's Leadership Schemes

This conference is for those working to engage young people: from those new to young people's leadership, to those who are more experienced and looking for ideas. Whatever stage you are at, you will benefit from advice and guidance on how to make youth leadership work.

08.30 Registration & Morning Refreshments

09.15 Chair's Opening Remarks

Stephen Rogers, Director, University of the First Age

09.20 Benefits Of Young People's Leadership – Inspirational Words From A Young Leader

Steve Moffat is 18 years old and has a number of years' experience of being a young leader. He will discuss his personal experiences in a range of roles in school, for Somerset County Council and for the UFA. Steve will be covering the skills he has gained, training, and why it is important for young people to have opportunities to lead.

Steven Moffat, Young Leader

Interactive Voting

09.30 Inspiring Leaders, Improving Children's Lives: Young People Leading The System?

- Is your environment providing the opportunities that enable young people to develop their leadership skills?
- Ensure that you are supporting young people to express their views and allowing them to share the power and responsibility of leadership.

Sue Egersdorff, Operational Director, Extended & Integrated Leadership Development
National College for Leadership of Schools & Children's Services

09.50 WORKSHOPS ROUND ONE (Choose One From A, B, C, D or E)

A Examples Of Young People's Leadership In Student Councils

- Most schools have student councils but do they ever talk to each other?
- Discover how under the umbrella of 'UFA Study Support' the school councils in Wallsend come together each term to look at ways of supporting each other and bid for Extended Schools funding to develop their own projects.
- Participants will look at the model of delivery and some of the outcomes for Wallsend as well as joining in some typical 'Joint Council' learning activities.

Alan Strachan
Director of Extended Services
North Tyneside (Wallsend Area)

B Develop Youth Leadership By Convening Young People's Boards & Use Social Networks To Engage Young People

- Focus on using different channels to engage young people: explore the benefits of convening youth boards to provide a platform for their opinions, and advantages of increasing youth participation via online social networks.
- Explore the YoUFA website which is designed by young people for young people, and understand how social networking can be used to aid communication with young people.

Insia Ishaji
Youth Ambassador
University of the First Age

Selena Brown
Communications Officer
for Young People
National Council for Voluntary Youth Services

C Peer Tutoring In Primary Schools To Aid Transition

- Serco Education Bradford's Transforming Learning Service, including Bradford's UFA team in partnership with Bradford Council's Parental Involvement Team, will share their experiences and examples of the work they have done with Peer Tutors focused on transition.
- The model has engaged both secondary-aged students and parents in supporting roles for their peers.
- Education Bradford share practical experiences of the schools, students and parents that are part of the programme.

Janet Penrose
UFA Partnership Manager
Education Bradford

Sonya Midgley
UFA Partnership Manager

D Training Young People To Be Tomorrow's Leaders

- Community Service Volunteers Education has been developing the Tomorrow's Leaders' Programme out of the National Student Leadership Programme, to support young people aged 12-14 who have leadership potential but are experiencing difficulties with behaviour and school attendance.
- Understand how the scheme is progressing: from the initial training course, through mentoring support, to the opportunity to lead an active citizenship project.

Peter Hayes
Education Director
Community Service Volunteers

E Student Leaders' Involvement In School Strategic Direction

- Understand how Ladybridge School has used the UFA Peer Tutoring scheme to develop student leadership within its setting.
- Hear how the scheme has developed over time and fits strategically within the school, allowing young people to make a positive contribution.

Paula Crawley
Deputy Head
Ladybridge School, Bolton
Young People from
Ladybridge School, Bolton

10.40 "How-To" Surgery Zones:

Speak to facilitators, young people and members of the UFA from the first round of workshops to gain additional tips and resources on how to practically implement the programmes demonstrated.

11.25 Morning Break & Informal Networking

Commercial Opportunities:

Can your organisation work with schools, local authorities and community services to increase, develop and enhance young people's leadership opportunities? If so, become involved as a commercial partner and interact with your target audience in a relaxed and educational environment. For unrivalled and unique networking opportunities please contact Keiron Gallagher on +44 (0)20 8267 4663 or email: keiron.gallagher@haymarket.com.

FURTHER INFORMATION FOR DELEGATES

1. Accommodation

Accommodation is not included in the registration fee. However, a limited amount of rooms are available at the Learning & Conference Centre, Nottingham. Please call +44 (0)11 5872 2195 quoting the conference title, no booking ref required. Rates from £80.00pp inc. VAT & breakfast.

2. Dietary Requirements

A vegetarian lunch option is provided as standard. For any other dietary requirements, please contact the conference team on +44 (0)20 8267 4011 or conferences@haymarket.com.

3. Access Requirements

We make every effort to ensure our events are accessible for all delegates. For any specific access requirements, please contact the conference team (as above).

4. On The Day

Whilst in attendance at any Haymarket event, if your behaviour is deemed disruptive, offensive, dangerous, illegal, or if you are found to be distributing unauthorised material we reserve the right to eject you without any prior notice or refund. Audio and visual recordings or the distribution of commercial materials are not permitted without our prior consent. We accept no liability for damage to or loss of personal belongings at the event venue.

SPEAKER CONFIRMATION & CHANGES

We arrange our conferences and speakers up to 6 months in advance and, as the date of the conference approaches, sometimes speakers are prevented from attending for personal or business reasons. With the increasingly challenging market conditions, we cannot guarantee any particular case study or speakers, as our speakers themselves cannot guarantee their attendance to us. We appreciate your understanding. We endeavour to find suitable replacement speakers of the same calibre. Often, however, a direct replacement cannot be found or found with enough time for the replacement to prepare a quality presentation. Please visit the website for regular updates on the speaker faculty.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Confirmation Procedure

Once we have received confirmation of your booking in writing (either online, fax or post) we will send you a confirmation email. An invoice will then be generated and sent out to you via post. If your company uses Purchase Order Numbers, please supply this at the time of booking as failure to do so may cause problems with your booking. If you request to be invoiced, payment terms will be 28 days from date of booking. Please note that we must receive full payment prior to the event start date. Your VAT receipt will follow once full payment has been received. Booking form submission (either online, by fax or by post) does not guarantee a place. The dispatch by us of an email confirmation constitutes a legally binding contract. If you have not received your confirmation email 14 working days after submission of your booking, please contact the Customer Services team on +44 (0) 20 8267 4011 as there may be a problem with your booking. Haymarket Conferences are unable to accept responsibility for the non-arrival of information. Haymarket Conferences reserves the right to decline any booking. Haymarket Conferences reserves the right to vary the content, timings, location and/or speakers of events and as such accept no liability for variations.

CANCELLATIONS

All cancellations must be made in writing to the address stated opposite, and received by us no later than 12 February 2010. Such cancellations are subject to a handling and administration fee of £75+VAT per delegate, which will be deducted from any due refund or invoice, whichever is appropriate. We regret that no cancellations are accepted within 20 days of the event date due to the way in which we are in turn charged by our suppliers. However, a substitute delegate can always be nominated. Substitutions on the day of the conference are made at the organiser's discretion only. Pre-payments will not be refunded and invoiced sums will be payable in full, except in cases where it has been possible to mitigate loss. Haymarket Conferences will not offer refunds to delegates due to a terrorist alert or incident unless the conference is cancelled. In this instance, Haymarket Conferences will retain up to 50% of the conference fee to cover marketing, administration and delegate registration costs.

DATA PROTECTION

By registering for a conference, Haymarket Conferences can provide you with information relating to your booking and other Haymarket and University of the First Age related products or services via email, direct mail, fax or telephone. Please write to the Head of Marketing at the address stated opposite if you do not wish to receive this information. We may also make your details available to carefully screened companies (excluding email addresses) who have offers that may be of interest to you.

- Yes, I would like to receive carefully screened and work related emails from third parties.
